Summer tourism sets record here

Tourists flocked to Canyon and surrounding attractions in record numbers during the summer months to leave well over $7 million to bolster the local economy.

As the summer travel season ended Monday, officials responsible for various attractions here reported a record season.

Some increases in tourist numbers at area attractions were near the 100 per cent mark for the summer season.

Dr. James Hanson, director of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, reports a tremendous increase in the number of visitors to the museum during the first eight months of the year.

During the entire year of 1974, he said, the museum had 99,000 visitors, including those visiting with special school programs.

So far in 1975 the museum has had 105,000 visitors not including those visiting with special school programs.

The summer months, Hanson said, provided large increases in the number of visitors. July had 27,000 visitors at the museum and Hanson said the month was the best ever recorded at the museum. Only 16,000 visited the museum during July 1974.

More than 20,000 persons toured the facility during August, he said.

In 1973, 86,000 visitors toured the museum and about the same number toured the museum in 1972.

Hanson said the museum has recorded record attendance at the museum for every month this year except February.

He said the increased attendance could in part be due to the fact that the museum is remaining open an hour later each day. But he notes that the later hour was also in effect during 1974.

The placement of large signs telling passersby of the museum's location he said may have added about 10 per cent to the visiting totals.

But, he attributed increased tourism in the area for the bulk of the increases.

The number of visitors this summer to Palo Duro Canyon State Park was also up dramatically this year as compared to 1974, according to Elon Baker, park superintendent.

Baker said 179,977 persons visited the park during August 1975 as compared with 95,348 who visited during August 1974.

Every month of the summer, he said, showed a similar increase.

The "TEXAS" musical drama which played nightly through the summer months also drew its largest crowds in its 10-year history this year.

More than 80,000 persons saw the Paul Green production in the Pioneer Amphitheatre in Palo Duro Canyon.

Almost 30 per cent of the total who came to see "TEXAS" came more than 500 miles to view the show, according to statistics provided by Mrs. Margaret Harper, "TEXAS" publicity director.

About the same number were from out of Texas and about 37 per cent of the patrons were from within a 100-mile radius of the show. The remaining percentage traveled more than 100 miles but fewer than 500 miles to see the show.

Roland Black, manager of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, said he had not actually figured the increase in tourist travel through the Canyon area for the summer, "but I believe it's the best we've ever had."

Black said the high price for gasoline seemed to have little or no effect on the tourist trade for the summer.

"I guess people are in the habit of going and they just go anyway," he said.

Ronny Howell provides the kind of defense the Canyon High School Eagles will need tonight as they open their season against Monterey of Lubbock at 7:30 p.m. in Lubbock. Howell blocked an extra-point attempt in workouts Tuesday. The Eagles of new coach Deane Wright open their season as usual with a group of tough Class 4A opponents. Football also gets underway this week end for the West Texas State University Buffaloes, who travel to Wichita, Kan., to meet the Wichita State Shockers Saturday night. Stories on both games are inside.

Major rezoning plans due public airing today

A public hearing on the first major rezoning proposal in Canyon since a new zoning policy was established six years ago will be at 7 p.m. today before the city planning and zoning commission.

The meeting will be in the community center.

Admin. Asst. Tom Plumlee said the commission during an August meeting initiated action to rezone portions of the west part of Canyon from single family to multi-family designation in the hopes that designation would spur development in the area.

Plumlee said he has received little feedback on the proposal from the residents involved and what feedback he has received has been favorable.

The area under consideration for the zoning change is the block just south of 4th Avenue from 11th Street west to the railroad tracks; the block north of 5th Avenue from 7th Street west to the railroad tracks; and the block between 5th and 6th Avenues from 6th Street to the railroad tracks.

Plumlee said the area under consideration would tie in with a portion of 4th Avenue which is already zoned multi-family.

He said his office has received a number of inquiries about the possibility of changing the zoning in the area from single family to multi-family and the planning and zoning commission felt a full change in the designated area would be better than spot zoning efforts.

The multi-family designation would allow builders or developers more freedom in the kinds of housing they might construct in the designated area. Under the single family designation only single family dwellings can be constructed.

Under the multi-family designation, the types of construction would be expanded to include single-family dwellings, two-family dwellings, apartment houses, rooming houses, boarding houses.

Plumlee said a special use permit would still be required with the multi-family designation for placement of mobile homes in the area.

The planning and zoning commission has the power only to recommend changes in zoning. The city commission will make the final decision at a later date.

Acres of sunflowers which earlier this summer brightened the landscape in patches around Randall County have turned into stark, bowed-head, and barren plants in area fields as farmers prepare to harvest the sunflower crop, first planted in this area this year. A defoliant is used to prepare the sunflowers for harvest and their bright yellow flowers are shed as leaves turn brown and black.

State law on smoking in effect

A new state law which criminalizes smoking in certain public areas went into effect Monday, but Canyon smokers will notice few changes.

Local officials responsible for public places to which the law applies report they have either already complied with the law in previous practices or are preparing to comply.

The new law, attached to the Texas Penal Code, provides that a person commits an offense if he is in possession of a burning tobacco product or smokes tobacco in a facility of a public primary or secondary school or an elevator, enclosed theater or movie house, library, museum, hospital, transit system bus, or intrastate bus.

Annex decision due this month, education commissioner says

A decision should be rendered this month by the Texas Education Commissioner on an appeal by the Canyon school board involving a land annexation dispute, he said Tuesday.

Dr. M.L. Brockette, commissioner of education in Austin, said the Canyon appeal case is the next one to be considered by his legal staff.

He said the decision should be issued before the month is out.

"Our legal counsel is working on it now," he said. "It's the next one out."

Local school officials have been waiting nine months for the commissioner's decision on their appeal of a Randall County School Trustees decision made last November allowing Amarillo School District to annex 160 acres of development land in South Amarillo.

"We do have quite a backlog and we do regret it," Brockette said. "The fact is we've had a lot more cases."

Canyon board members and attornies presented the Canyon appeal before a deputy education commissioner in January in Austin.

The decision by the commissioner took on a new significance last week when Bob Davis of Columbian Securities Corporation, financial advisor to the local school district, told The News that until the dispute is settled it will probably not be possible for the local district to issue bonds for the anticipated construction of new schools here.

Davis said the bond attornies for his firm have informed him that the Texas Attorney General would not approve issuance of the bonds — anticipated to total about $6 million — until the dispute is ended.

The dispute began more than two years ago when five families in the Glendale subdivision in the north part of the school district petitioned the county board of school trustees to have their development annexed by the Amarillo school district and detached from the Canyon district.

School trustees approved the petition in November 1974 and Canyon school board members protested the decision, appealing it to the education commissioner.

The Davis opinion places in doubt the question of whether the local school board will push their protest further should the education commissioner decide the case against the local district. The matter can be appealed to the Texas Education Commission and then to the district court in Austin.

Supt. Jerry Jacobs said Tuesday he is unsure what impact Davis' opinion will have on the school district's plans to hold a bond election in November with subsequent issue of bonds to finance new school construction.

Hearing committee yet to be named

Caballero decision reasons due

Department heads and deans at West Texas State University had not met Wednesday to vote on five of their number to form a special hearing committee in the case of deposed Dr. Emilio Caballero.

A procedure established by university regents in early August specifically applicable to Caballero provides that the hearing committee members must be elected within 10 days after Caballero calls for a hearing to appeal an August decision by university administrators to remove him as head of the art department.

The 10-day deadline runs out Saturday.

Before Saturday, too, the university president, Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins, must write a letter to Caballero "advising him of the causes for his non-renewal or termination in sufficient detail to fairly enable him to show any error that may exist and to have reasonable notice of the bases for his non-renewal or termination."

The letter or another one from Watkins must inform Caballero of the names and the nature of testimony of all witnesses against him.

The univeristy's department heads are to meet some time this week to elect three of their number to serve on the special hearing committee.

University deans are likewise to meet this week to elect two of their number to serve on the committee.

The hearing must come within the next 30 days, according to the regent procedure.

Watkins and Caballero are to present evidence and witnesses during the hearing and the committee of deans and department heads are to make a decision on whether Caballero should be retained as department head or removed.

Regents are the appellate authority for the hearing committee.

Caballero, art department head 20 years, resigned last January but in June withdrew his resignation and charged that university administrators had coerced the resignation.

Regents, confronted with the charges, went to the Texas Attorney General for advice, and, according to Regent Don Curry, they were told to establish the procedure which is now in effect.

Caballero was informed by letter from Watkins two weeks ago that he would not be recommended for retention as department head, but would be retained as a full professor.

As alternative to building new schools

School group recommends study on expansion of facilities

A school subcommittee studying building needs called Tuesday night for the Canyon School Board to examine the possibilities for adding on to present school buildings rather than constructing new school plants to handle large student numbers.

The subcommittee of the school board-appointed Committee for Quality Education passed a resolution asking the school board to put their financial advisor, architect and superintendent to work on a report on the feasibility of expanding current school plants.

The resolution came after a report from subcommittee members on the building needs of the four Canyon school district campuses.

The subcommittee's action was to be presented to Bill Davis, chairman of the overall Committee for Quality Education, on Wednesday for transmission to the whole committee and then to the school board.

Carroll Wilson, subcommittee member, called for passage of the motion he offered on the resolution, saying additions to existing schools should be an alternative to be examined.

Wilson pointed out that it might be possible to expand current schools with additions at a price which would total less than the price for construction of two new schools.

Canyon School Board members have for two years examined the possibility of constructing new schools — a new elementary school and a new high school — to handle overcrowding in the school campus.

An Amarillo architect has also been working on plans for construction of two new schools, and board members have talked about the possibility of calling a bond election in November to issue about $6 million in bonds to pay for the new construction.

Wilson told other subcommittee members it might be more inexpensive to provide additions on each school campus, readjust boundary lines that provide enough space for even further growth on each school share.

"If Rex Reeves with 1000 students is providing a good education, why couldn't Gene Howe provide a good education with 1000 students," he asked. "I think it's something that needs to be studied because a lot of money is at stake here."

He said large high schools have proven to provide good educations in other parts of the state, too, and it might be less expensive to simply expand Canyon High rather than construct another new high school.

He pointed out that one addition has already been constructed at the high school campus and at a cost under the cost anticipated for construction of a new high school. The vocational education buildings at CHS, he said, cost just over $1 million but that cost is far cheaper than the $3 to $4 million anticipated for construction of a new high school.

Wilson said it might be possible that large cost items such as athletic facilities and cafeterias could be avoided if schools were expanded on present campuses.

Subcommittee Chairman Charles Purcell called on an Amarillo architect during the meeting, Earl Wossum, to give an off-the-cuff opinion on the cost of additions as opposed to the cost of new school construction.

He quoted Wossum as saying the cost difference would be negligible.

Mrs. Jim Palmer, subcommittee member, reported that the Gene Howe Elementary School campus in the north part of the district is badly in need of expansion room.

She quoted Principal Luther Lawless as saying the school was designed to house about 450 students and now has almost 600.

Lawless expects a 10 per cent increase in the number of students annually, she said. The campus is now operating with four portable classroom buildings.

Mrs. Borden Price, another subcommittee member, reported

Attitude Said To Be Big Plus Factor As Eagles Head For Lubbock Game

The Canyon High School Eagles will be going south today to begin the 1975 football season against Lubbock Monterey. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

"We still have a long way to go, but we're still learning and the team attitude is real good," coach Deane Wright said.

The Eagles scrimmaged Plainview Friday and received a taste of what lies ahead in the first six games-class 4A competition. "We started the scrimmage off in a bad way, but we got better as it progressed," Wright commented.

"It's just something that will take time. Our defense is new to the team, but I think by mid-season we'll have a good football team," the coach said.

Wright said the problems that plagued the team at the beginning are still there. Those problems center around inexperience in the defensive secondary and inexperience as well as lack of size and speed at the running back positions.

James Odom, Monterey head coach, saw reasons to respect the Eagle offense after scouting the Canyon-Plainview scrimmage. "Canyon has good size and their outside attack off the Wishbone option has the potential to break for long gains. They also throw enough to make you respect their throwing," Odom said.

Monterey will begin the season tonight with eight returning starters, four on offense with the same number on defense.

"We've got quickness in the backfield but no size, so we have to throw the football," Odom said. Handling the tossing for the Lubbock team will be Scott Gardener, 6-5, 185.

Once in a great while, an outstanding high school quarterback will come along, and Monterey has one. This is the sentiment expressed by Wright.

Leading the Monterey defense will be Larry Green, nose guard; Mark Morgan, tackle; and Tim Leslie, defensive back. All three were starters last year.

Monterey is picked to win their conference title.

Adding to the dilemna of facing a strong passing attack with an inexperienced secondary, several Eagles will be going both ways, that is, playing both offense as well as defense, Wright said.

Among those who will possibly be playing the entire game are Brad Bowers, Ronny Howell, Drew Hetzler, Joe Luquette and Ricky Cooper.

"It's either taking someone off the defensive team to beef up the offense or taking someone off the offensive team to beef up the defense," Wright said. So, he added, it looks as though some of the players will be playing the entire game.

Hard hitting is the name of the game as the Canyon Eagles go through pre-season practice sessions in preparation for a tough schedule dominated by 4A foes.

Adult Education Class Is Offered

Adult basic education classes will again be offered through the Canyon Public Schools in cooperation with the Panhandle Educational Services Organization (PESO) and the Texas Education Agency.

Class registrations will be held September 30 at 7 p.m. in the cafeteria at Rex Reeves Elementary School with Mrs. John Childs of Canyon, instructor.

Instructional guidance will be given for completing the GED-High School equivalency certificate; beginning level, intermediate level and advanced level as well as citizenship classes. For further information about the program and other requirements check with Mrs. Childs, 655-9157.

Blanchard Spark For Buffs

Stories along this line may be a little shopworn, but for the sake of emphasizing a point this one is worth repeating.

The West Texas State University football team traveled to Louisville last year for a Nov. 30 date with the University of Louisville. On Friday, the day the squad arrived, almost all team members proceeded on a sight-seeing tour of Louisville's Churchill Downs, the site of the Kentucky Derby.

But quarterback Tully Blanchard did not go. He stayed in his hotel room and rested for the game. His logic was simple: "I didn't come here to go sightseeing. I came here to play football."

Which is, in a nutshell, the season Blanchard came to West Texas State. A walk-on transfer from SMU, Tully faced the immediate challenge a year ago of beating out Mike Wartes and Don Nava, both senior veterans, for the number one job. Blanchard did just that, holding the position for 10 of 11 games.

"Tully came here last year with virtually no experience and won a starting job," head coach Gene Mayfield adds.

As chief superintendent of the wishbone, Blanchard rushed for 261 yards and passed for 858 more, including eight touchdowns. He earned offensive player of the week honors in the 41-7 win over Wichita State when he completed three of those scoring tosses. His finest moment, however, came against Tulsa when he completed 10 of 18 attempts for 162 yards and two scores.

The star system always seems to replenish itself, and it's only natural that someone will have come along and challenged Blanchard in the manner in which he himself won the job from Nava and Wartes.

From what now seems like the cloak of darkness, Buff coaches welcomed Bill Delaney, a transfer from UCLA, to the Canyon campus.

"Bill has great potential," says Mayfield of the 6-3, 205 pound native of Vista, Calif. "First, though, he has to get used to what we are doing. It's hard to come and look good with no experience. He's big and strong, and he can run."

"Delaney has the strongest arm of all our quarterbacks," adds offensive backfield coach Jim Dawson, "and he is improving with every practice."

Of course, both coaches are aware of Blanchard's experience, which now includes 11 games and spring training. "Right now, Tully's quite a bit ahead because of that experience," Mayfield explains.

"He's looking great," Dawson says of the former San Antonio Churchill star. "He's developed his running skills and is throwing the ball better than ever. Because of an accident last summer, his arm was weak most of last season, but it has been strengthened this year.

"Tully is going to be extremely difficult to beat out, and because of his competitive nature, he has provided us with an excellent leader."

Just how deep the Buffs are at quarterback this year is illustrated by Mickey Matthews, a junior split end from Andrews, when he talks about WT's third quarterback, Tracy Qualls.

"If Qualls had been here when I was a freshman, he would have been a three year starter," says Matthews.

Mayfield doesn't wish to put things on such a comparative level, but he is quick to emphasize that Qualls is in the thick of the QB battle. "I'll be honest," he says, "I wasn't too excited about Tracy when he first came here.

"But he has made so much progress during the spring and this fall that, as far as I am concerned, he is still our second quarterback, ahead of Delaney."

Just who starts and plays is still to be seen, but the Buffalo coaches feel that the competition bred by the three effective athletes will leave West Texas State with a strong quarterback.

Mrs. Mary Parker presents a check for $200 to Dutch Cleavinger, president of the Canyon Senior Citizens Association, for use by the association for remodeling of its new building here. The check was given by the women's division of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce.

Tennis Clinic Set Next Week

An adult tennis clinic has been scheduled for September 13-14 at Amarillo Town Club with Roland Ingram and David Kent as instructors.

The clinic is designed for beginner and intermediate players and will include basic fundamentals of the game as well as analysis of strokes and strategy points for singles, doubles and mixed doubles play.

Participants are asked to provide their racquet, tennis togs and warmup attire. Balls will be furnished. The clinic will be at Amarillo Town Club courts, 4514 Cornell (just southeast of Amarillo High) with activities beginning at 8:45 a.m. Sept. 13. Leading collegiate tennis players and coaches from the southwest will aid the clinic directors.

WT Program Director Named

New West Texas State University Director of Residence Hall Activities Lynn DeGeer's "principle responsibility is to fill the gap between the academic community and the student life field," according to Vice-President for Academic Affairs Paige Carruth.

The West Texas State University graduate returned to her alma mater from physical education teaching posts in South Texas and Barrow, Alaska.

"I want to build up life at West Texas State," Miss DeGeer noted, "and make it where there is a lot to do and people interested in doing it."

While a student at West Texas State, Miss DeGeer was active in WT residence hall activities, serving as president of Cousins Hall as a freshman and working with the Women's Residence Hall Council and later the Inter-Residence Hall Council and later the Inter-Residence Hall Council.

In her new post she will work with the elected officers of each dorm to start new programs and activities in each hall.

"We are looking at ways to provide activities on the education, cultural and social levels in the halls," she continued.

"A multitude of different things could be done," she said, "including holding informal classes in bridge or electronics in the dorms, or inviting various professors to visit with the students."

Each dorm has funds ranging from one to two thousand dollars from dues and small money-making enterprises such as soft drink machines. Prior to this time, most of the dorm activities centered around the intramural sports program and some social activities.

"We want to educate the dorm officers as to why that money is there, what it is, and then try to help them get things going," she said.

"We want to give students something to do that will keep them here on weekends," she concluded.

Jones Infant Girl Born Here

Mr. and Mrs. Larren (Buck) Jones of Nazareth announce the birth of a daughter, Jennifer Anna, on August 26 at Palo Duro Hospital in Canyon.

The baby girl weighed 5 pounds, 1¼ ounces and measured 18 inches at birth.

Mr. Jones is a farmer-rancher at Nazareth. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Haschke of Umbarger and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Jones of Nazareth.

Lubbock Man Found Dead

A 46-year-old Lubbock man was found dead in his automobile about 4 miles south of Canyon late Tuesday afternoon.

Sheriff Cliff Longest said there was apparently no foul play involved in the death.

Justice of the Peace W.A. "Bill" Wilson pronounced Burl M. Harlan dead at the scene.

He was found slumped over the seat of his vehicle, which was parked under trees on the west side of the west lane of U.S. 87.

Longest said Harlan had apparently injured his wrist in an accident late Sunday in Amarillo and bled to death in the vehicle while en route back to Lubbock.

He said the man had apparently been dead 28 to 32 hours before his body was found by a passing motorist about 6:30 p.m. Tuesday.

An autopsy was to be conducted Wednesday to determine exact cause of death.

Chess To Be Offered

The Canyon Community Education program will soon be getting underway and one of the new courses being offered for the fall term is Beginning Chess.

Starting date for the class will be Sept. 30 and will consist of eight class meetings of an hour and a half each. The class will meet from 7 to 8:30 on Tuesday nights. Glenn Hughes will teach the course.

Chess is said to be a great aid to concentration, logical thinking, and patience.

The chess class will cover an analysis of the board, the moves of the various pieces, and as much basic strategy as possible. It will also entail an analysis of the difference between chess and some other similar games.

Beginning Chess, along with several other courses, will be available to residents of the community beginning the week of September 29. Classes will be held at Rex Reeves Elementary School, Gene Howe Elementary School and Canyon High School.

The Sunday News will carry a complete listing of the courses being offered this fall. Interested persons should contact Mrs. Virginia Cotton or Dr. Ken Hart at Canyon High School's vocational education department, 655-2168.

Locals Visited

Miss Ginger Chesser, a local resident of Canyon, was visited by her family from Houston, Texas over the Labor Day holidays.

Included were her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Vanelli; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Betty Key; and sister and brother-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Montag of Victoria, Texas.

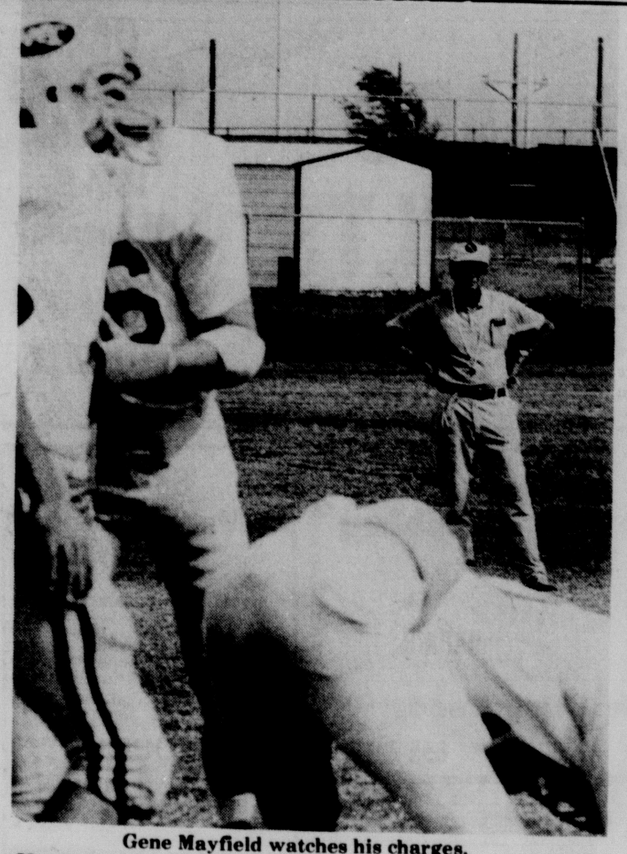
Experience Should Be Key In Buff Grid Opener



Gene Mayfield watches his charges.

If the name of the game is experience, West Texas State's Buffaloes could be far ahead of the game in the 1975 football season opener against Wichita State Saturday night.

Game time in Wichita's Cessna Stadium is 7:30 p.m., with the broadcast over the Shamrock Network set to begin at 7:15 with Warren Hasse mikeside.

The Buffs, ranked second behind defending champion Tulsa in the Missouri Valley Conference race, will have a bunch of familiar faces on the field for 1975's opening kickoff. Coach Gene Mayfield and his staff welcomed back 36 lettermen from last year's 6-5 team, while Wichita State, 1-9-1 last year in Jim Wright's first year at the helm, called on 14 junior college transfers to bolster the corps.

While the Shockers went the JC route in an attempt to fill their holes, WT only brought in two junior college players, cornerback Tommy Mills and quarterback Tracy Qualls. Instead, Mayfield opted for top quality high school recruits to help solve problems at split end and linebacker.

Freshman Scott Wiley, a 5-8, 160-pounder from Brownfield, could be the man needed at wide receiver. He moved into the starting lineup last week.

"Not only is Scott catching the ball well," Mayfield explains, "but he is always looking for someone to block when the play is away from him."

As for the third linebacking position, it's still between Winston Short in the middle and Mike Podzemny on the strongside. One of them will start along with Jeff Nunn, the junior letterman from Tucumcari, N.M., taking the middle if it's Podzemny or the strongside if it's Short.

The third linebacker will be Larry Spears, who joined three other defensive teammates in earning pre-season All-MVC honors. Tackle Floyd Jones and end John Ayers, along with strong safety Mishael Kelson won the kudos from the league coaches.

On offensive, tackle Jeff Lloyd was named to the star team, as was punter John Paul Lee. The six players honored were the most ever for WT in any Valley all-league team.

Wichita State had only two players named, defensive lineman Willie Smith and linebacker Dave Warren, but Wright has plenty more stars in his constellation.

Quarterback Sam Adkins, quotes Wright, "is the best quarterback in Kansas," and runningbacks George Seacrist and Elbert Williams both have a year's worth of starting experience.

Last year in Kimbrough Stadium, the Buffs raced away with a 41-7 win. Quarterback Tully Blanchard completed only three passes, but all went for touchdowns.

OUR TOM CAME home for his birthday, which was September 1st. On Sunday, we went to the Don Raef's in Amarillo for a chicken dinner, birthday cake and ice cream. Then Monday we celebrated again at our house. Father Ken Keller, Les and Mary Goodin, Carolyn Cloninger, Mike and Margaret Browder and Joe and Kevin all came from Amarillo.

Lewie Jr. came by Sunday, from a bike trip up in Colorado, so Tom had a "Happy Birthday." He went home on Wednesday.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. V.J. Meyer were honored with a surprise birthday party at their home on Sunday August 31st by their children and a few close friends. Mrs. Meyer's birthday was August 29th and Mr. Meyer's will be on September 5th.

Cards were enjoyed all afternoon and a supper was served to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Strafuss, of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Rhorback and Miss Helen Uhlrich of Vega; Mrs. Joe Meyer, Carolyn and Betty, of Adrian; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Meyer, of Dalhart; and Mr. and Mrs. V.C. Meyer, of Umbarger. Happy Birthday to both the Meyers'.

THE GEORGE LIEKHUS family was suddenly awakened about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, when a west bound car, driven by Shirley Herber from Dimmitt struck George's pickup which was parked in front of the Liekhus home.

The impact drove the pickup into Rose's car, which was in front of the pickup. Ms. Herber was believed to be only slightly injured, but the pickup and both cars were pretty well totaled. The Umbarger Volunteer fire department was called to wash the highway, because of leaking gasoline.

THANKS FOR THE news, all you who called. Reba.

Vaughn Nelson Featured In Motion Picture

Dr. Vaughn Nelson, head of West Texas State University's Department of Physics and Dr. Earl Gilmore, a professor in Amarillo College's Department of Physical Sciences, will be featured in a major documentary motion picture this fall.

The film is being produced by the Advertising and Public Information Division of The Georgia Power Company, based in Atlanta. The hour-long film will be broadcast on 23 television stations throughout the power company's marketing area, primarily in the southeastern tier of states.

Nelson and Gilmore are being included in the film because of the significant work they are doing in the applications of wind energy for rural environments, according to Donald Lively, the producer of the film. Lively is a former KAMR TV newsman who is now head of Georgia Power's broadcast relations division. The sequence on the WTSU-sponsored project was shot by Wayne Hughes, head of West Texas State's broadcast bureau and former collegue of Lively.

This is not the first regional and national exposure for the wind energy team. Both men were featured in "AM America," the American Broadcasting Company's early-morning news program during June. Nationwide audience saw progress reports on the pair's research at WTSU's Nance Ranch twice during that month.

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News about it. Telephone 655-7121, or stop by the News office on the south side of the square.

Recycling Fashions Helps With Budgets

BY BECKY HALL
County Extension Agent

Homemakers of all income groups realize the advantages of recycling family clothing to be in fashion for economic, creative, and self-satisfying reasons.

For years most seamstresses have been altering, mending, repairing, updating, changing and generally "recycling" clothing.

The current emphasis is on recycling due to the high cost of clothing and general economic situation, rapidly changing fashion trends, shortages of certain fibers and fabrics, and the fact that giving new life to old clothes is the "in" thing to do.

In order to recylce yesterday's fashions for today, we need to be aware of fashion and fashion trends. By avoiding extremes, our recycled garments should remain fashionable for at least two seasons and perhaps longer.

Mini recycling is fast and easy. Often simple changes can create an entirely new look.

Some possibilities are: lowering or raising hemlines; applying trims, appliques or top-stitching; changing buttons or trim; removing or shortening sleeves; adding patch pockets; replacing or changing pockets, collars, cuffs or belts.

When mini recycling, strive for a coordinated look that compliments the entire ensemble. For example, if adding a contrasting band at the hemline, pockets of the same fabric may tie the look all together.

Maxi recycling involves ripping an old garment apart and then cleaning and pressing the garment pieces. New garment pieces are then cut, often using a pattern.

Time plus energy, plus imagination and wise use of unwearable garments can often produce recycled and fashionable garments for family members that extend the clothing dollar.

For more recycling ideas attend one of the Home Demonstration Club meetings in September. Call the Extension office — 655-3341 — and get information on meeting times, dates and places.

Home Canners Warned About Switching Lids

BY BECKY HALL
County Extension Agent

Home canners are being advised not to experiment with canning lid substitutes.

Mrs. Nancy Harvey Steorts, Special Assistant to the Secretary of Agriculture for Consumer Affairs, reports that because of the difficulty in obtaining home canning replacement lids, many consumers are now trying questionable methods of reusing old lids.

Some of the products being used are sealants, rubber cement, glue, bathroom caulking and cellophane.

Mrs. Steorts says that the use of these products could result in food which would not be safe for consumption.

"Don't take shortcuts or experiment in home canning," says Mrs. Steorts. "Do not reuse sealing lids and use only jars, cans, and lids especially made for home canning. Consumers, as an alternative to home canning, should consider freezing or dehydrating fresh foods."

Home canners should be reminded that when your canning directions say 10 pounds pressure that one needs to adjust the pressure for high altitude (3600 feet in this area). We should use 12 pounds pressure to reach 240 degrees Fahrenheit. It is important to keep your pressure accurate and constant. Keeping the pressure constant and accurate insures that complete sterilization of bacteria takes place in the vegetables or meats being canned, as well as preventing the loss of liquid during processing.

He is survived by his wife, Loree; a son, Earl Murphy Downing of Las Cruces, New Mexico; a daughter, Mrs. Charlie Upshaw of Wichita, Kansas; and six grandchildren.

Smoking. . .

plane, or train which is a public place.

An offense under the section is a class C misdemeanor.

While the law makes it an offense to smoke in certain public areas, it also establishes certain defenses should a person be prosecuted.

It is a defense to prosecution, for example, if the public place in which the offense occurs doesn't have prominently displayed a reasonably sized notice that smoking is prohibited by state law in a public place and that an offense is punishable by a fine not to exceed $200.

All public places set out under the law must also have facilities for the extinguishment of smoking materials "and it shall be a defense to prosecution under this section if the conveyance or public place within which the offense takes place is not so equipped."

The law also excludes certain places from the law.

It says: "It is an exception of (the law) if the person is in possession of the burning tobacco product or smokes tobacco exclusively within an area designated for smoking tobacco or as a participant in an authorized theatrical performance."

Ray Grimes, administrator of Palo Duro Hospital here, said he has not yet worked up rules for smoking in the hospital and has yet to obtain appropriate signs to install to warn against smoking in certain areas.

"We've been waiting for guidelines," he said, "but we've received no information on it."

Grimes said the hospital staff will probably recommend to the South Randall County Hospital District board that they designate the public waiting rooms in the hospital as smoking areas, leaving the remainder of the hospital off-limits to smoking.

Individual rooms for patients, he said, could be designated as smoking areas depending on the patient in the room.

Jim Hanson, director of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum here, said it has been museum policy for some time not to allow smoking in the museum buildings.

Signs already warn patrons of the policy, he said.

But, he indicated certain staff areas will be designated as smoking areas because "certain staff members and the director do smoke."

Smoking in the library on the West Texas State University campus is already prohibited except in certain sealed off areas.

Likewise it is prohibited on public school campuses except in teacher lounge areas.

Lehnick Given Award

Curtis Lehnick last week received an engraved electric clock for having served 25 years as a mechanic with Stevenson Motor Co.

Curtis is in charge of the service department for the Stevenson Company located on Canyon Hill on the E-Way across from Kimbrough Memorial Stadium.

Lehnick is a native of Groom but grew up in Happy and is a graduate of Happy High School. He worked as a mechanic for several automotive houses here before joining Stevenson Motor Co. in 1950.

His wife, Shirley, is from Canadian. They have two children, Jerry and Greg, and one grandson, Michael.

Making the presentation last week was Cleve Williams, district service manager for the Pontiac Division of General Motors Corporation.

"It has been a well-spent 25 years," Lehnick declared. "I have enjoyed my association with the company and have raised a nice family in Canyon."

"We are proud to have Curtis represent us," declared Williams in making the presentation. "He heads up one of the finest service departments in the Canyon municipal area."

Sherman To Address Nurses

State Senator Max Sherman of Amarillo will address the annual West Texas State University nurses convocation at 7 p.m. Friday in the WTSU Activities Center Ballroom.

The convocation will recognize 110 basic nursing students advancing to upper division courses and their junior year, according to Dr. Hazel Aslakson, dean of the School of Nursing.

Nursing students do not work in complete uniform until their junior year, she explained. Although not a capping ceremony, the convocation will recognize the students in caps and uniforms for the first time.

After the convocation, the students will enter into in-depth nursing courses for the junior and senior years, Dr. Aslakson said.

Dr. Lloyd Watkins, president of WTSU, will introduce Senator Sherman.

Burglars Strike

Burglars hit their 14th rural residence since July 25 some time last week.

Wayland Angel, who lives about a mile east of U.S. 87 on Rockwell Road, reported Tuesday that his home had been broken into.

Angel had been on vacation during the past week and returned home to find a porch window broken and $1100 worth of goods taken from the home.

He reported missing two television sets, a clock, microwave oven and bedspread.

Sheriff Cliff Longest surmised that the burglary was the work of the same burglars who have hit 13 other rural area homes north of Canyon in the past month.

Shown here making a 25-year presentation to Curtis Lehnick, right, is Cleve Williams, left. Looking on is Paul Stevenson, manager for Stevenson Motor Company which Lehnick serves as service manager. Williams is district service manager for Pontiac Division of General Motors Corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ramsey announce the August 27 birth of a daughter, Jessica Lyn, at High Plains Baptist Hospital in Amarillo.

The father is employed with Diamond Shamrock of Amarillo.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Eural Ramsey of Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Williams of Amarillo. Paternal great-grandparents include Mrs. S. J. Roach of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. T.A. Ramsey of Lubbock.

Canyon Mayor Manly Bryan signed an Appreciation Week proclamation for Texas Public Employees Association this week with Roy McCarter, left, president of Palo Duro Canyon Chapter #135, and Bill May, local chapter vice president, present for the occasion.

TPEA Appreciation Week

Palo Duro Chapter No. 135 of the Texas Public Employees Association is among TPEA chapters across the state recognized by Governor Dolph Briscoe in a recent Appreciation Week.

Canyon's Mayor Manly Bryan signed the proclamation this week for observance of Texas Public Employees Association Appreciation Week as Roy McCarter, local chapter president, and Bill May, chapter vice president, returned from a state session of TPEA.

The TPEA is for all state public employees and during the past year the organization has been instrumental in obtaining pay increases for its membership including an increase of 5.2 per cent on salaries of classified employees and 5.2 per cent increase of salaries for non-academic employees of colleges and universities making less than $10,500 per year.

Both increases become effective September 1, 1975 and an increase of 6.8 percent in salaries for classified employees non-academic employees making less than $10,500 per year has been approved to go in effect next September.

Non-academic employees exceeding the salary of $10,500 a year will receive raises at the discretion of their colleges and hourly employees will receive proportionate adjustments in their hourly rates.

Other TPEA accomplishments during 1975 have included prepaid legal services, advance travel pay, workmen's compensation funding, group insurance and retirement benefits, and merit raises for improving professionalism.

The TPEA accomplished the passment of 10 of the 14 bills presented during the legislative sessions this past year. Other bills are for increased vacation time, educational opportunities for state employees, overtime and night shift pay provisions and longevity benefits.

According to local chapter TPEA president, McCarter, work is yet to be completed relating to personnel hiring practices, biweekly pay periods and group auto insurance.

Onward To Thanksgiving

By DORIS McKEE

LABOR DAY WEEKEND has now passed and it's back to work and school. And the way time flies, before you know it, will come Thanksgiving Holidays.

* * *

WELL, GREETINGS FROM here at Siesta. Hope I was missed just a little last week. I just couldn't seem to get much together, so just had to skip.

* * *

THE KIDS HAVE been in school a couple of weeks now and hopefully we can all get settled into a regular routine. And get into full swing for this year's activities.

* * *

WE WOULD LIKE to express our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Art McQuery of 201 La Fiesta due to the recent death of their son, Darell Glenn. Funeral services were at The First Baptist Church in Hereford, with burial in West Park Cemetery.

* * *

I TALKED TO Faye Risner this week and learned that she and Peck took a recent trip to Texas City to see their son, Greg, who lives there.

They had a real good time even though it rained and rained. They all went to Galveston beach and watched Greg and a friend do some surfing. Also making the trip was the Risner's married daughter, Cheri Henson of Amarillo.

* * *

WAS TALKING TO Cathy Ramariz a little while back to see what they had been doing this summer. She said she, Adam and the kids had made a few trips to Albuquerque. Also went to Artesia, N.M. one weekend to attend her brother's wedding.

On August 19th daughter, Anna Marie celebrated her 12th birthday. Eleven girls attended. They all went swimming, where everyone had a great time, then back to the house for eats, including ice cream and cake.

* * *

CALLED PAT REED to see how she was feeling. It seems to be taking her longer to get over her recent surgery than she had expected.

A couple of weeks back Pat and Tex's household was brightened by the arrival of Pat's son and daughter-in-law, Clayton (Skip) and Donna Bowes. They have moved here from Boston, Mass. and at present are staying with the Reeds, until they have a chance to get settled.

Skip has gone to work at Best Products. We welcome Skip and Donna to Texas and to Siesta.

* * *

WE HAD A short visit from Roy and Martha Crumley (an uncle and aunt of mine) from Pleasant Valley last week.

* * *

A BELATED HAPPY birthday to Ruby Huddleston. She turned 21 plus on August 26th. Her son and daughter-in-law, Jack and Vera gave her a bicycle. Of course, I haven't seen her ride it yet, but I'm still watching.

* * *

SPEAKING OF BICYCLES, I have been noticing recently a couple of daily riders around the park. Seems Clarice Heglin and Peggy Gore are really enjoying bike riding.

* * *

KID'S INC. FOOTBALL has started up again. Mickey Bays is playing on the Gene Howe 5th grade team and Tod McKee will be the center for the 6th grade Falcons.

Am sure there are some other boys from the park participating so if you'll let me know we'll try to keep up a little on everyone. Good luck boys, win 'em all.

* * *

ALBERT, KATIE, DAVIA and Kathie Rinne had guests over the weekend. Kenneth, Pat, Kim, Chris, and Rayanna Dout of Cleburne, Texas were here for a few days.

* * *

TOD WENT OVER to Donnie Trammell's Saturday afternoon to spend the afternoon, seems they were having so much fun that it appeared necessary for him to spend the night. They had a real good time. On Sunday Donnie came home with Tod and spent Sunday night.

* * *

SURE HOPE EVERYONE has enjoyed their garden as much as we have ours.

It takes a lot of work, planting, watering, gathering, canning, eating and it goes round and round as long as the plants last.

* * *

WANT TO SAY Happy Birthday to our daughter, DeAnn who will turn 5 on September 7th.

* * *

I WANT TO give a list of girls here in the park who would love to do some babysitting. If for any reason you need their services please call:

Davia Rinne — 355-1374; Cecilia Bays — 352-1913; Janet Coffelt — 355-3576; Connie Coffelt — 355-3576; Teri Mayfield — 355-5313; Christine Stewart — 130 La Fiesta (no phone).

* * *

SURE DO HOPE you folks remember that the Lamount Drive Baptist bus runs every Sunday morning here in Siesta. Pickup time is 9 a.m. at the recreation building. If you don't already go elsewhere give it a try. Your children would love Sunday School. The bus will return any riders after church.

* * *

TIME TO SAY so long for this week but will be here next time, so Keep on Reading.

Thought for this week, "A dream is never as good as the real thing, so do less dreaming and more real."

See ya. Doris McKee 355-4133.

Smoke Filled Prayers Something To Think About

BY KAROLYN FARMER

I RECENTLY READ the results of a survey taken in Switzerland. A majority of those interviewed felt that it was all right to pray while smoking. However, the majority also strongly agreed that it was wrong to smoke while praying.

Now, how's that for a classic example of confused logic?

It's also very confusing to me to call a holiday "Labor Day." I never know whether I'm supposed to labor or rest from my labors. (But since when does a mother have a choice?)

I suppose we could all get together and form an A.F. of M. (the "M" is for Mothers). But I doubt if any of our members could ever get away from the house long enough to organize the union.

* * *

THERE'S CERTAINLY A minimum of confusion and a maximum of logical teaching in Pam Layman's afternoon kindergarten class.

As I entered the room last Friday, several of the children were finishing their colorful paintings. Shannon Boyd was putting the final touches on her picture of a blue and green tent and a TV set. Neville Jones had chosen to paint a big red clown. And Stephanie Stewart expressed herself by painting lots of different colored squares.

The focal point of Pam Layman's room is a bulletin board featuring several Humpty Dumptys carrying big signs that say, "Our school is Gene Howe," "We are five," and "Our teacher is Miss Layman."

Another bulletin board has many colorful pictures of things associated with school — a big red apple, a school bus, a football and a school crossing sign.

After each child finished with his art work, he or she spent a few minutes "reading." Todd Oliver had chosen "The Dog Book." He showed me a picture of a bulldog, which he said was his favorite kind of dog.

After gathering the children around her in a circle, Miss Layman handed each of them a different colored paper circle attached to a stick. The children identified the colors as they were handed out and then played a game. They sang to a record and each child stood as his or her color was mentioned in the song.

Pam and the children also sang several other activity songs that helped them in identifying parts of the body and different articles of clothing.

Next the kindergarten children were instructed to sit next to an edge or corner of the carpet in the reading area (which I thought was a clever way of getting them separated). They relaxed and listened as their teacher read them a story, asking a few questions now and then (as five year olds are prone to do).

Just before class was over, Pam reminded the children that there would be no school on the following Monday. Ty Buchanan informed his teacher and class that he was going to Ruidoso for the weekend.

Also visiting in her daughter's class for the first time this year was Mrs. Charlene Layman, who had volunteered to help Pam clean up the painting materials.

Pam Layman has 21 children in her afternoon class this year. And it was especially amazing to me that she was able to hold their attention so well on a Friday afternoon. Pam obviously enjoys teaching kindergarten children and the children really respond well to her calm and efficient manner.

PORTIA TILLINGHAST, ONE of our 1st grade teachers, spent a very busy and exciting summer and says that she enjoyed every minute of it. The entire Tillinghast family is involved in their summer business which is called Frontier Expeditions.

Jack, who is a physical education instructor at WT, is in partnership with Woody Hassinger, a pilot for Frontier Airlines. The two men, along with their crews, run raft expeditions on the Salmon River near Corn Creek, Idaho during the summer months.

Jack has been involved in the exciting sport of river running for 16 years and serves as the lead boatman on all their trips. Frontier Expeditions was featured in the spring issue of Frontier Airlines' magazine — the airlines and Jack's business are not affiliated, but only share a common name.

The article points out that all of the river trips have been without accident and have been enjoyed by people from all age groups.

During the summer Portia, Jack and their children Monte, Lonnie and Kim lived in their trailer house near the river. Portia told me that because of the high mountains they're not able to have television or radio, and they really just enjoy being together as a family.

One of Portia's contributions to the business is driving the 650 mile round trip to pick up passengers for the trips.

The 70 mile expedition down the Salmon River lasts for five days. Besides having thirty sets of rushing rapids, the river also runs through a canyon which is deeper than the Grand Canyon.

Portia told me that she and the children also go along on several of the river trips. Monte, who is in the 7th grade at CJHS this year, also tried something new this summer. He rode a 93 mile stretch of the river in a Sportyak (something similar to a kayak).

The Tillinghasts also own a kayak and have been using the swimming pool at the WT Activities Center to practice their rolls, etc. in it.

Portia says that Jack also plans to take college students on a river expedition during Easter vacation next spring.

If you're interested in finding out more about the thrill of river running, call Jack Tillinghast for the details.

CHEERLEADERS FOR THE 6th grade football team have organized and are preparing to cheer their team on to victory. Karol Hicks and Cindy Wilson will be sponsors for the squad.

The girls who will be leading the yells are: Judy Nuzum, Andy Reagan, Tracy Kimbrough, Pam Fiel, Renee Judkins, Jeanne McDonald, Melinda Yarbrough, Allison Ayres, Angie Copeland, Susan Paetzold and Melissa Merritt.

* * *

FAYNE AND JUDY Jones and children, Monica and Richard are one of the many new families in our area. The Jones recently moved from Dallas and now live in Southgate Mobile Home Park.

Fayne, who is originally from Dallas, is a computer operator with Western Data. Judy works at St. Anthony's Hospital in Amarillo as a key punch operator. She is originally from Canyon and is a graduate of CHS. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Clark, Judy's parents, are the owners of Monarch Cleaners in Canyon.

Monica Jones is in Mrs. Johnnie Gordon's third grade class; and Richard is in Portia Tillinghast's first grade class.

* * *

WISHES FOR A happy birthday go to Scott Kozak who will be nine years old on September 10th.

* * *

CUB SCOUT PACK 130 hosted a picnic at Gene Howe this past week for all Cubs, prospective Cubs and their families. Approximately 70 people attended to enjoy the homemade ice cream and the fellowship.

Billy Edwards will be Cub Master for the Pack this year. He reported that nine new boys were signed up at the picnic and five adults were recruited as new workers for the Pack.

* * *

WORK HAS BEGUN on the new school directories for this year. Farris Ann Morrison, publications chairman, and Doris McKee, reporter, along with several other PTA members are compiling the information and hope to have the directories distributed sometime in the next two weeks.

As always, school directories will be given to families who have joined Gene Howe PTA. There will be a letter sent home with the children this next week giving parents another opportunity to join PTA.

This year ice cream sundae parties will be given to the children in the rooms with the highest PTA membership. Sandra Wait, second vice president, is in charge of the membership drive at Gene Howe.

Outdoor Worship Concludes Fourth Season

The fourth summer season of the Lay Mission in Palo Duro Canyon closed the 1975 season of outdoor worship on Sunday and it is noted that this season was "one of the most successful ever."

The summer missions work is sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Canyon and non-denominational services are conducted by area laymen. The season began the first Sunday in June.

Services are held at the Cottonwood Grove, near water crossing number five, in the bottom of Palo Duro Canyon and J. C. Newton, layman mission pastor, spoke for the final worship on Sunday. Kenneth and Louise Baker directed the musical worship.

During the summer worship season the lay mission services have had a low attendance of 35 one service to a high of 148 persons in services.

An iron cowboy, made of horseshoe nails, has been presented to the person travelling the fartherest to attend each Sunday's service and have been presented to persons across the continental boundaries of the United States and from several foreign countries this season.
